

Today in Art Masterpiece the students learned about the sculpture Procupine by Felipe Archuleta. He was born In Santa Cruz, New Mexico and carved animals out of wood. He became so busy that he had to hire assistants to help keep up with the demand of his sculptures. These primitive animal sculptures had great texture and appeal.

Today in Art Masterpiece the students learned about the sculpture Procupine by Felipe Archuleta. He was born In Santa Cruz, New Mexico and carved animals out of wood. He became so busy that he had to hire assistants to help keep up with the demand of his sculptures. These primitive animal sculptures had great texture and appeal.

Today in Art Masterpiece the students learned about the sculpture Procupine by Felipe Archuleta. He was born In Santa Cruz, New Mexico and carved animals out of wood. He became so busy that he had to hire assistants to help keep up with the demand of his sculptures. These primitive animal sculptures had great texture and appeal.

Today in Art Masterpiece the students learned about the sculpture Procupine by Felipe Archuleta. He was born In Santa Cruz, New Mexico and carved animals out of wood. He became so busy that he had to hire assistants to help keep up with the demand of his sculptures. These primitive animal sculptures had great texture and appeal.

