Junior Achievement®

Junior Achievement is looking for volunteer mentors to invest in the lives of the students at Knox Gifted Academy for a one day teaching event on Thursday, November 13th!

JA Volunteers:

Junior Achievement Mentors lead preplanned lessons that help make an impact in the lives of students by developing:

- The desire in young people to stay in school and appreciate lifelong learning.
- Positive attitudes in young people toward work and toward contributing to a diverse society.
- Business and education partnerships that create a bridge between the classroom and the workplace.

What to Expect:

JA provides the training and all the materials. Mentors are matched with a classroom of students and teacher.

- ◆ Training: One 2-hour training session
- ◆ Time Commitment: 1- 2 hours prep time prior to Knox Gifted Academy's JA Day on November 13, 2014.
- ◆ In-Class Mentoring: One day event spent at the school from 1/2 hour prior to the first bell to 1/2 hour after the end bell, teaching pre-planned curriculum.
