Dear Parents,

WOW! The third week of school was great. We are getting used to our routines. We are getting better at being first time listeners and following directions. When we do this, we have a lot of fun. We are continuing to work on our Work Stations expectations. We are reflecting on our expectations and things we need to work on. We are working on using our 1 inch quiet voice and listening for directions before moving to our next station.

So many things happened this week. I would like to announce that Susan Cushway and Joy Haugan are this year's Room Parents. They will be contacting everyone and sending out the classroom directory soon. Susan and Joy are the liaison to the PTO and will be disseminating information to you via email in the form of Monday Morning Message. They will also be coordinating with me the classroom parties and other activities throughout the year. Susan and Joy have a big job ahead of them and supporting them any way you can will help make our year awesome.

Thursday at the assembly, Big Mouth Productions put on a Character Counts Presentation. We will be learning about the 5 pillars in conjunction with our Olweus Anti-Bullying Program. We learned that character counts all the time even when nobody is watching.

Enclosed in the blue folder is the Chandler Education Foundation 100% Awareness Campaign. Your donations support many wonderful programs.

Our first homework packet came home today. Please read though it carefully and sign that you reviewed your child's work. Please note that the last page is a handwriting practice for your child to write their name. Please help them hold their pencil using a tripod grip. I also enclosed a sheet showing the proper formation of the uppercase and lowercase letters. I also have a link on my website that you can refer to.

Remember, School Picture Day is Tuesday, August 12th 😊 Wear your best smile!

Have a great weekend!
