

CHANDLER HIGH WOLF BITES

AUGUST 29, 2016

ARIZONA D-BACKS "MVT"

Mrs. Sara Wyffels, CHS Spanish Teacher and World Language Department Chair, was named a Diamondbacks Most Valuable Teacher at last Friday's game. She was recognized during a pre-game ceremony and received a check for $1,000 to be used in her classroom. Mrs. Wyffels was one of ten teachers, nominated by a student, to be chosen for the award. Congratulations!

GOLF

Chandler High Girls Golf opened their season with a 190-192 win over Mountain Pointe last week and then went on to beat Basha 188-237. Hope Morales was a medalist against Mountain Pointe, shooting 42. Alexia Morales was a medalist against Basha, also shooting 42. Great job, Wolves!

Boys Golf opened their season by competing in the Superstition Cup on Friday and Saturday. Congratulations to sophomore Ty Templeton on his 3rd place overall finish.

FOOTBALL

The Wolves traveled to California on Saturday to take on #3 nationally ranked Centennial (CA). Over 500 CHS fans traveled out of state to watch the Wolves battle in a terrific high-scoring game. Ultimately, the Wolves fell short 56-49, but set the tone for an exciting season full of great football. The first home game is this Friday against Pinnacle. Come out and support our Wolves!

BADMINTON

CHS Badminton takes on Mountain Pointe and Desert Vista this week. Come cheer the team on to victory on Tuesday and Thursday at 3:30pm in Payne Gym.

SWIM

CHS Swim hosted its Blue and White Meet last week. Captains chose events for the swimmers, enabling new members to sense what a swim meet is all about. The team, coached by Mr. Kerry Croswhite, celebrated with their first Dine-Out at Buffalo Wild Wings for some much needed nourishment. Have a terrific season, Wolves!

AVID

AVID (Advancement Via Individual Determination) is an elective class offered to freshmen through seniors that promotes college eligibility and success. It is recommended that students remain in the AVID elective for three years to reap the program's benefits. Last year's AVID Seniors had a 100% graduation rate with a 3.44 average GPA; 94% of them took at least 1 AP/IB Exam; and 100% planned to attend a college or university after high school.

Currently, 41 CHS AVID students are volunteers with Hartford Elementary School for PALS, a mentoring program which pairs high school and elementary students. The students meet at Hartford twice a month and engage in fun activities with their buddies.

Watch for more info about this great program throughout the year!
