Rick Garretson - Receivers Coach and Passing Game Coordinator, Chandler High School - Coach

Garretson has over 20 years of coaching experience at the high school and youth levels. Coach Garretson led the offense at nationally recognized Servite High School in Anaheim, CA for several years and has over 20 years of leading camps at all levels, including NFL, College, High School, and Youth camps.

Lionel Manuel, Jr. , assistant receiver coach, Chandler High School - Drafted by the New York Giants in the seventh round of the 1984 NFL Draft. A 5'11", 180-lb. wide receiver from the University of the Pacific, Manuel played in seven NFL seasons, and spent his entire career with the Giants (1984–1990). His peak performance was during the 1988 season, when he caught 65 passes for 1,029 yards and scored four touchdowns.

Chad Carpenter - Chad Carpenter played wide receiver at Washington State, where he caught passes from future first-rounder's Drew Bledsoe and Ryan Leaf. He had over 2,000 yards and 17 touchdowns in his college career as a four-year starter and All-Pac 10 receiver. The Arizona Cardinals drafted him in the fifth round in 1997, and Carpenter played on the 1998 Cardinals team that made the playoffs. He spent three years in Arizona and one with the Browns before retiring to the Phoenix area. Carpenter serves as an assistant at Chandler High School and tutors the next generation of football stars at FBU
