preparation

- 1 Come prepared to class with required materials, (homework, paper, pens, etc.)
- 2 Start working on work immediately so that class can start within 5 minutes of the bell
- 3 As juniors in high school, I expect you to advocate for yourselves. If issues arise with an assignment, I expect to be notified BEFORE the start of class.

responsibility

Grades will be updated weekly. It is your responsibility to use Infinite Campus to check your grades. Essays usually take about a week to return. If you have questions/concerns about your grade, feel free to ask.

If you are absent, you are responsible for completing your make-up work (one day for make-up for each day absent). This can be done before or after school or via email. If you are absent, please check my website for links to documents and assignments

Late Work

All homework is due at the beginning of class. A completed assignment includes printing when required.

If you have printer issues, I expect to be notified before the start of class.

assignment formatting

All typed assignments must follow standard MLA format:

1. 12 point Times New Roman Font
2. double-spaced
3. Proper heading: your full name, my name, class and period, date
4. Running header with your last name and page number

Curriculum

The junior English course covers American Literature from its beginnings to present day. Writings will include argumentative, informational, and narrative with many of the assignments using research skills. Grammar vocabulary, and speaking/listening skills are also covered throughout the year.

1st Quarter: Foundations of Democracy
Focus Work: Foundational U.S. Documents

2nd Quarter:
Power and Protest
Focus Work: Into the Wild by Jon Krakauer

3rd Quarter: The American Dream
Focus Work: The Great Gatsby by F. Scott Fitzgerald

4th Quarter: Society and the Individual
Focus Work: The Crucible by Arthur Miller

Plagiarism

I expect that every assignment will be your original work. Plagiarism will not be tolerated.

All essays written outside of class must be submitted to Turnitin.com.

Self-plagiarism is a form of cheating and is academically dishonest. It occurs when an author reuses his/her own previous written work or data in a 'new' written product without letting the reader/instructor know that this material has appeared elsewhere. This includes reusing any portion of an assignment previously written and/or submitted to an instructor for a grade and/or an assessment. Any act of self-plagiarism, intentional or unintentional, or acts of academic misconduct on any assignment may result in: failure for the assignment, or failure for the course after a conduct referral has been written.

Egregious plagiarism will result in a zero on the assignment and a possible academic referral. Furthermore, if you choose to plagiarize, you can say goodbye to any chance of me writing you a recommendation for job and/or college applications/scholarships.

electronic devices

Electronic devices should be kept in students backpacks or in the charging station at the front of the room unless otherwise instructed by the teacher. If you choose to keep your phone in your backpack, and I see it (when I shouldn't), your phone will be confiscated.

1st Offense: Warning

2nd Offense: Phone will be returned at the end of the class period.

3rd Offense: A parent or guardian will be called to pick up the device in the attendance office.

4th Offense: Conduct referral
