

Strive for the impossible, and be extraordinary!

November 18, 2019

Dear Knights,

It was a great short week! A reminder that this year we will be closed the Wednesday before Thanksgiving. This means a very short week. I'm looking forward to spending the long weekend with family in San Diego. Student Council is planning a super fun assembly on the afternoon of Tuesday Nov. 26th. I hear student and teacher lip sync battles are in the works. Should be fun!

Participatory Budgeting hits ACPO!

A small group of amazing Knights have taken on participatory budgeting! Basically, our student body will be able to democratically decide on how to spend $5,000 at our school. The club is preparing to collect ideas from their peers next week during lunch. The goal is to get 3-4 proposals that the entire student body can then formally vote on in March. Stay tuned for this exciting and educational experience!

ACP Erie High School

Erie counselors will be visiting 8th graders in the Social Studies classes on December 2nd to talk about registration for next year. Remember that our students are encouraged to continue at Erie for high school. Mr. Bickes will also host a parent meeting here on Dec. 2nd at 5:30 pm in our cafeteria.

Yearbooks for Sale

Yearbook Sale! Our ACPO yearbook staff would like you to know that the Yearbook is on sale for $40. Purchase your Yearbook today at Jostens.com before December 1st to take part in this exclusive deal!

Speech and Debate

Good luck to our Speech and Debate team and Mr. Magel this weekend. They will be competing at Mesquite High tomorrow. Go Knights!

Harkins Fundraiser

ACPO Booster Club is hosting their annual Harkins fundraiser. Please look for order forms next week.

Thank you and have a restful weekend! Go Knights!

Sincerely,

Tony Alcalá
