The Ugly Vegetables
Realistic Fiction

Essential Question: What can you learn from planting a garden?

Vocabulary:

Word	Definition
blooming	having flowers
shovels	garden tools used for lifting dirt and soil
scent	a smell, especially a nice smell
tough	hard, thick on the outside
wrinkled	folded up in a messy way; crumbled
plain	simple, not fancy
muscles	parts of the body used to help you move and do things
nodded	moved the head up and down to show agreement

Vocabulary practice: review and study vocabulary words

High Frequency words:

air	car	cried	funny	he
pictures	pretty	told	try	window

Target Skill: conclusions

- Mari's Scavenger Hunt: read the story then answer drawing conclusion questions
- Drawing Conclusions Clues: guess the item by the clues given

Vocabulary strategy: homophones

- Which One? Choose the correct word to complete the sentence
- Super Match: match the homophones to reveal a picture

Grammar: proper nouns

- Proper Noun Battleship: try to sink your opponents ships
- Proper Noun Lesson and Game: short lesson with two games Phonics: double consonants, CVC, and ck

- double consonants: sort the words by their double consonants
- Phonogram ck: make words by adding –ck
- Double consonant break: print the worksheet for double consonant break practice

Drawing Conclusions

Conclusions: using details from the story to figure out information about an event or character that the author does not directly state in the writing

Directions: Use The Ugly Vegetables to draw conclusion.

Detail:	Detail:	Detail:

Conclusion:

The people in the neighborhood know and like each other.

Detail:	Detail:	Detail:

Conclusion:

Drawing Conclusions

Conclusions: using details from the story to figure out information about an event or character that the author does not directly state in the writing

Directions: Use another book you have read to draw conclusions.

Detail:	Detail:	Detail:

Conclusion:

Detail:	Detail:	Detail:

Conclusion: