

Algebra 2

Prerequisite: Geometry

This course is the third year of an integrated study of mathematics. Students will model and solve real-life situations dealing with such topics as probability, statistics, algebraic functions, geometry, and an introduction to trigonometry.