

US/AZ Government and Constitution

Prerequisite: None

This civics course consists of a study of the federal and state governments and their constitutions. The purpose is to instill a basic knowledge and appreciation of our representative form of government and its development. It will enable the students to think in terms of the national levels of government, paying attention to related current events. Students will acquire knowledge of the responsibility as a citizen to the community, state and nation. The ultimate goal is to help students realize the significance of our American heritage and democracy.
