

Unit 1 Lesson 9: What Basic Ideas about Government Did the State Constitutions Include? How Did the New States Protect Rights?

(Lecture/Reading Notes)
Why were the colonies returned to a “state of nature”?	In theory, yes,,,never before had so many new governments been created using the basic ideas of _____ philosophy, _____ism, and _____ government.
What 6 basic ideas did the state constitutions include?	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1) Higher _____ & _____ rights 2) _____ contract 3) Popular _____ 4) Representation & right to _____ 5) _____ supremacy 6) Checks & _____
How was the Massachusetts constitution different?	Written by _____ Adams the Mass. State constitution provided not only the separation of _____ but ALSO a system of _____ & balances to further prevent the misuse of _____.
What were the state declarations of rights?	Colonial Americans believed in _____ guarantees of rights and only after listing certain _____ rights were they willing to then create a _____.
What important ideas are in the Virginia Declaration of Rights?	June 12, 1776 _____ became the 1st state to adopt a declaration of rights...written by George _____ (he later opposed the U.S. Constitution because it had no _____ of _____). All power is derived from and kept by the _____! The people are _____!! Thomas _____ borrows from the VA. Dec. of Rights when drafting the Dec. of _____ July 1776
What rights were protected by the other states?	Right to _____, free & frequent _____, freedom of speech & _____, right to _____, no _____ without representation and PROCEDURAL GUARANTEES OF _____: right to _____, trial by _____, protection from illegal search & _____, protectin from _____-incrimination, excessive _____ & fines, protection from _____ & unusual punishment. Feared standing _____ during peacetime & quartering _____...all supported the right to keep & bear _____!
In what ways were the state declarations different from the U.S. Bill of Rights?	State declaration of rights _____ the creation of the government itself and define the _____ of the government. The U.S. Bill of Rights is a list of _____ to the newly formed government following the _____ of the U.S. Constitution and protects specific rights (i.e. religion, speech, petition). It promotes & protects _____ rights & equality.

What principles are illustrated by these photos??

Write a brief reflection stating what you think most interesting from Lesson 9:

On a separate sheet of paper:
Complete Reviewing & Using the Lesson
Ques. 1-4 page 52.