DECIDING WHERE TO APPLY

Final list should include a combination of:

“Reach” schools – dream schools where admission is “iffy” or have admit rates between 5-20%.

“Possible” schools – you closely meet the expectations in the schools profile, but competition for spaces can still be tight.

“Probably/likely admit” – Chances for admissions are very strong.

“Financial safety” – a place that parents can afford if your financial aid package is not strong at other schools, or if your financial situation changes at home due to the economy, unemployment, etc.
