Singing 1st Grade Praises!

Learning good lessons is still going on in Ms. Johnson's class. First grade incorporates acts of kindness as part of their home school assignments. Cassidy and Chase Martin put it into action recently when they left notes of appreciation for their mailman. The mailman returned the act of kindness the next day! They were so excited to see a note and a little present. They felt really good that their notes clearly made his day.

JACOBSON JETS specials bingo

Jets, your specials teachers are missing you and hope that you are all doing well and staying healthy! We wanted to share a fun "specials" activity that you can enjoy at home! Please note that this is optional. The goal is to try complete one activity from each of your specials (Music, Technology, PE and Library) and make 4 in a row on the bingo card! Even better if you can complete all the squares! It would make our day to see you participating in some of these activities so feel free to email us pictures!!
