

SNAPSHOTS OF Ms. Hartman's Class

Week of December 2nd – December 6th

What We're Learning

Reading- This week we will be reading: Helen Keller. We will be looking at answering the question: how can you communicate in different ways? We will be focusing reading skills such as author's purpose and summarizing to better understand the story.

Writing- We will be starting our Star Student letters focusing on using facts and opinions to share with our Star Student our understanding of their favorites and dislikes.

Math- We will be completing lessons on drawing line segments to the nearest half inch, multiplying by 7's,, drawing bar graph using a scale of ten, and write number sentences for equal group stories.

Science- We are learning about the states of matter: solid, liquid, and gas. Students will be working on trying to find the answer to: why do objects change? Students will be making Oobleck to see the change of phases

Spalding- Students should be practicing their 30 spelling words. We will be testing on FRIDAY so, please be ready. We will also be introducing our spelling words for next week in class this week with our phonogram practice.

Grammar- We are working on using proper nouns and the suffix -ly.
