

SNAPSHOTS OF Ms. Hartman's Class

Week of January 27th - January 31st

What We're Learning

Reading- This week in reading we will be reading a humorous fiction story entitled: The Signmakers Assistant. We will be focusing on reading skills such as identify point of view and text features to better understand the text.

Writing- We will be developing the story map for our narrative about something someone did that was important or brave.

Math- We will be working on rounding to the nearest hundred, comparing fractions, and fractional parts of wholes.

Science- We are learning about nutrition and what makes a healthy meal and making healthy snack choices.

Spalding- Students should be practicing their 30 spelling words. We will be testing on THURSDAY so, please be ready. We will also be introducing our spelling words for next week in class this week with our phonogram practice.

Grammar- We are working on using commas in dates and places.

By the end of the week I will be sending out a sign-up genius for parents to sign up for parent teacher conferences. Please be on the look out.

Second Step Skill: Learning about Feelings

Understanding that people can have different feelings in similar situations, and that these feelings can change, helps students develop empathy. We are trying to build up to our ability to show and recognize empathy.
