This Week

This week in reading, we read Diary of a Spider. It was a humorous fiction story about a spider and his best friend fly.

In writing, we started writing about something that we are afraid of and why. We can't wait to finish up so Miss Itsell can share at conferences.

In Foundations, we learned about glued sounds. We call these glued sounds because when a vowel is right next to an n or m it distorts the vowel sound. We are working hard and practicing the new sounds every day. 😊

Snack

Please remember to send your child to school daily with an afternoon snack. Most of the kiddos get quite hungry in the afternoon. For the first few weeks we have had some class donations, but please do not depend on it. Thank you for your support! 😊
