This Week

In reading we read a realistic fiction story titled The Ugly Vegetables. It was about a little girl and her mom who were growing a Chinese vegetable garden.

In Foundations, we learned about different suffixes. We spent time talking about how many of our suffixes are not spelled how we hear them when we add them to words.

We read a fun book titled Dear Deer to learn about homophones. After reading the book we made a list of all the homophones we know. We also learned about the difference between common and proper nouns. 😊

This will be our last newsletter of first quarter! Can you believe it? Have a safe and relaxing break! See you in October! 😊
