AT THE GARDEN

FALL 2019 TEEN VOLUNTEER OPENINGS

OPPORTUNITIES:

BUTTERFLY | In the Butterfly Exhibit, assist with answering questions, guiding guests and protecting our pollinators.

CHILDREN AND FAMILY | Provide assistance with facilitation and engagement with children and families during Desert Botanical Garden programs like Cocoon and Girl Scouts.

DISCOVERY CART | Discovery Guides share desert knowledge and engage visitors with hands on, multi-sensory experiences at Discovery Stations located throughout the Garden.

FESTIVALS | During festivals, engage with guests by facilitating crafts and activities.

GREAT MILKWEED GROW OUT | Support our monarch butterfly populations by helping grow milkweed plants (the monarch's host plant) and other beneficial plants for pollinators.

COMMUNITY GARDEN | Participate in growing vegetables, fruit, flowers and herbs with other like-minded gardeners to support local food banks.

Open to all middle and high school students ages 13 to 18. For more information and volunteer applications, contact John Bello at jbello@dbg.org.
