

September 20, 2021 – Mrs. Dafoe's

Fantastic First Graders

Apples This week we will work with apples across all subject areas. We will, also, be doing many activities learning about Johnny Appleseed. We will be reading many non-fiction books, and discussing the information learned.

Reading This week I will be reading several stories related to Johnny Appleseed, and discussing the difference between facts and opinions.

Spelling No spelling test this week 😊 There are words if you child would like to practice them, but no test.

Writing This week we will write about Johnny Appleseed!

Math We'll work on addition to 20 and strategies to aide in adding faster! We will be learning a cool doubles song.

Social Sciences We will be introducing maps, keys and the compass rose and we will be introduced to basic coding using Ozobot. We will create our own map that Ozobot will use.
