

Basha High Students and Parents,

Get excited for the Tri-University College Fair!

Arizona State University, Northern Arizona University, and the University of Arizona are coming together to ensure that you are well informed about the opportunities and resources that are available to you. As your public in-state universities, they recognize the importance of working together to help you understand your best college fit.

A CUSD, Tri-University College Night has been created just for you. See the details below for date specifics. Feel free to contact your College & Career Center or Counseling Staff for more information. We look forward to seeing you there!
