FROM MRS. BLACKWELL

SPELLING: Students will test on list 11 this week. Students will enter list 12 this week.

MATH: We will continue our Saxon lessons, ramping up our multiplication practice. Please make sure your kiddos are practicing their X's facts at home. A great way to practice is with flash cards! They can make their own out of index cards or they do sell them at the dollar store.

Reading: Our next Journey's story is Amos and Boris. The students will be reading and analyzing the characters in the story. We will also be reading up on Veteran's Day.

IMPORTANT DATES

- 11/6 Poem Recitation due
- 11/8 Veterans Day breakfast Celebration at 8:15 in library—ceremony following
- 11/11 NO SCHOOL Veteran's Day
- 11/19 School Site Council meeting 3:30-4:20 Library

ESTUDIOS SOCIALES/CIENCIA

Social Studies/Science

This week students learned how Native Americans and Spanish conquistadors interacted with the Southwest environment and adapted their lives. We focused on adaptation of plants and animals of the Sonoran Desert. Next week, students will understand how Native American lives changed with the migration of Spanish conquistadors throughout the southwest.

Reading/Lectura

This week students learned about different cultural activities and hobbies. They learned and recognized cognates. Next week, students will review numbers 1-12; talk about telling time; learn to read and create schedules including the times that that activity takes place.

SPANISH WORDS OF THE WEEK

- celebración
- gimnasio
- guitarra
- puedo
- hacer
- tocar
- ¿qué te divierte?
