Class News

FROM Ms. BLACKWELL

SPELLING: Students will test on list 12 this week. Students will enter list 13 this week. Spelling test will be on Friday this week, due to the short week.

MATH: We will continue our Saxon lessons. We are learning division principles along with practicing more complicated multiplication. There will be a Saxon test on Friday along with a bell work quiz.

Reading: This week we will work on annotating a passage and answering questions while citing evidence from the text. We will use passages other than our Journey's book to practice this skill. The students are really doing a great job picking up this skill!

Grammar: Students will practice writing quotations properly this week as the grammar skill.

ESTUDIOS SOCIALES/CIENCIA

Social Studies/Science

This week students discussed how Native American lives changed with the migration of Spanish conquistadors throughout the southwest. Next week, students will continue to explain and elaborate their understanding of mission life for Native Americans with the migration of Spanish conquistadors.

Reading/Lectura

This week students reviewed numbers 1-12; talked about telling time; learned to read and created schedules including the times that an activity takes place. Next week, students will describe pets, recognize and use antonyms, learn the use of y and o, and identify details in a story.
