WORLD LANGUAGE WEEK AND EXPO

The CHS World Language Department staff and students hosted a celebration of culture and language during World Language Week last week. On Monday, German classes hosted a lunchtime activity marking the 25th anniversary of the fall of the Berlin Wall by creating their own wall in the courtyard and having students express what freedom means to them. Tuesday's French lunchtime activities included making crepes, "En garde!" with student "musketiers" dueling with baguettes, and "Ratatouille", a rubber rats toss. Spanish classes took over on Wednesday and Thursday and involved students in salsa stations, Spanish paper flower making and burrito eating contests. The celebration culminated with the World Language Expo on Thursday. Students enjoyed culturally relevant activities, booths, and performances!
