Congratulations to Sydnie Grismore and Faith Mendoza, Prudential Spirit of Community Certificate of Excellence winners! The girls demonstrated exceptional initiative in service to the community and were designated top student volunteers in Arizona. Additionally, Sydnie and Faith received the President's Volunteer Service Award. Thanks for all you do, Sydnie and Faith!

Congratulations to the CHS Varsity Baseball Team for a terrific season. The Wolves finished the season 19-10. They made it to the State Tournament, losing 3-2 in a tough second round game. Thanks for an awesome season, Wolves!

Varsity Boys Volleyball had an awesome season, finishing with a 14-3 record. The Wolves made it to the second round of last week's State Tournament before being eliminated.

Bearpaw Mosley and Marco Morales recently signed letters of intent. Bearpaw signed a letter of intent to play football at Northern Arizona University. Marco will play basketball for Lander University. Congrats and good luck, Bearpaw and Marco!

DECA THRIVES AT INTERNATIONAL COMPETITION

Chandler High School DECA had seven students competing in five different events at the International DECA Competition May 3rd-5th in Atlanta, GA. There were 17,000 students and advisors in attendance from the USA, Canada, Mexico, China, Puerto Rico, Guam, and Germany. Each event averaged approximately 200 individuals/teams.

CHS had a number of winners! Receiving certificates of excellence for earning a 70% or higher in all areas of their event: Rishab Jain, Whitney Rossi, Brandon Decker, Miranda Jones, and Brandon Tran.

Special congratulations to Rishab Jain who earned top 10 overall honors in the Sports and Entertainment Promotion Plan Event. Rishi wrote an 11 page promotion plan for the ABA team Arizona Scorpions. In addition, he gave a 15 minute presentation on his plan and took a 100 question exam on Marketing concepts. Rishi has been working really hard since January to perfect his performance and it definitely paid off! The Arizona Scorpions will highlight Rishi on their website for his outstanding performance!

CHS BANDS PERFORM LAST CONCERT OF YEAR

The CHS Jazz Band, Concert Band, Wind Ensemble and Symphonic Band performed in their final concert of the year on May 8th in the CCA. Each band sounded phenomenal, and as a finale, the Wind Ensemble, Concert Band and Symphonic Band performed John Mackey's "Foundry" as one large group. What a great way to end the year! The bands are under the direction of Mr. Ryan Semrau and Mr. Harout Boyajian.

BEGINNING DANCE CONCERT

The CHS Beginning Dance classes performed on May 7th and 8th in the Bogle Theater. The dancers performed 13 numbers, most of which they choreographed themselves. Thanks to the Beginning Dance classes, the technical crew made up of Modazz dancers, and Dance Teachers Mrs. Kathie Burin and Miss Vanessa Freeman, for directing, choreographing and performing a great show!
