Homework / Absences

LATE WORK IS NOT

ACCEPTED. Any student who is absent is responsible for make-up work and will receive the number of days absent to complete and turn in the work while following the general homework policy.

Assignments that require printing are expected to be printed before arrival to the classroom; work brought in on flash drives is considered "missing".

Remind

Ms. Stueber utilizes Remind text messages to communicate class-related information to students and parents. It is expected for students to subscribe. Please subscribe to the appropriate class hour so you receive the correct information.

Turnitin.com

Students will utilize this website when submitting written work to generate an authenticity report of the paper. In some cases, both a hard copy of the assignment and submission to the website is required. The late-work policy also applies to Turnitin.com submissions. In the event of a tech mishap, papers submitted within 24 hours of the deadline will be accepted but will be docked 10% of the earned grade.

Classroom Norms

- Be respectful to all.
- Store phones in the pocket locker.
- Engage productively in class.

Academic Dishonesty / Plagiarism / Cheating

Academic dishonesty, plagiarism, and cheating will not be tolerated.

Students are required to submit their own work and cite their sources. Any student caught cheating (giving or receiving answers/work), plagiarizing others' work (copying work/ideas without giving credit), or self-plagiarizing (reusing previously written/submitted work) in or outside of class will receive a 0 for the assignment and a written referral--no exceptions.

Self-plagiarism occurs when an author reuses his/her own previously written work or data in a 'new' written product without letting the reader/instructor know that this material has appeared elsewhere. This includes reusing any portion of an assignment previously written and/or submitted to an instructor for a grade and/or an assessment. Self-plagiarism is a form of cheating and is academically dishonest.

Additional Policies

All school policies will be followed and enforced, including:

- Adherence to dress code.
- No food, gum, or beverage (other than water) in the classroom, unless approved.
- No hats or earbuds on while inside the building.
