

Level One & Two ASL Expressive Rubric

	No Evidence (1)	Emerging (2)	Developing (3)	Good (4)	Strong (5)
MOPSE	No evidence	Weak sign production makes comprehension difficult. Sign choice may be incorrect.	Sign production is weak but understood. Errors may occur but don't affect comprehension.	Signs are clear. Correct signs are used. Minor errors, if any.	Sign production is clear and easy to understand. Correct signs are used. Free of Errors.
Grammar	No evidence	Limited to no evidence of ASL grammar	Some ASL grammar is evident with minor errors and/or inconsistencies.	ASL grammar is predominantly used with few errors.	ASL grammar is predominantly used correctly.
NMS Grammar	No evidence	NMS are not used. Excessive mouthing.	NMS evident, but errors and/or inconsistencies are present. Mouthing is limited and/or appropriate.	NMS used with minor errors. Mouthing is appropriate.	NMS used with minor inconsistencies. Mouthing is appropriate.
NMS Tone of Voice	No evidence	Limited / None	Present, but weak / inconsistent	Consistent	Engaging
Fluency	No evidence	Signing is fragmented, impeding comprehension.	Multiple hesitations are present, but they do not impede comprehension.	Minor hesitations that do not impeded comprehension	Pacing is fluid. Pausing is used to enhance clarity.

Total: ____/25

23-25 points=90%+ Letter Grade: A; 20-22 points=80-89% Letter Grade: B; 18-19 points=70-76% Letter Grade: C;

15-17 points=60-67% Letter Grade: D; 14 & below: Letter Grade: F