DECA BOO GRAMS

9TH GRADE PARENTS- IMPACT CHANDLER SCHOLARS PROGRAM

On Monday October 23rd, all ninth graders attended a presentation on the Chandler Education Foundation's IMPACT Chandler Scholars Program. This program is a recognition reward program for CUSD students that demonstrate academic excellence, exemplary attendance, and a commitment to service in their community. To start the eligibility process, students must complete and submit the Student Participation Commitment Form during 9th grade within the enrollment period of October 23 – November 6. PLEASE encourage your 9th grade student to submit the form to their World History teacher or Kirsten Wiley in counseling by Friday, November 3rd. For more information, visit the CEF webpage.

SUICIDE PREVENTION SEMINAR

ACT to Save a Life
Suicide Prevention

October 24, 2017
7:00 pm to 8:30 pm
Queen Creek Performing Arts Center
Queen Creek High School
22149 E. Ocotillo Rd, Queen Creek

Sponsored by:

 LA FRONTERA
ARIZONA
IMPACT - SUICIDE PREVENTION CENTER

Increase your awareness of:

- Warning signs & risk factors of suicide
- How to talk to your kids about suicide
- Monitoring social media for risk
- Suicide bereavement

Parents and guardians will learn best practices to support our youth with a specific focus on how to recognize markers of distress.

Counselors from EMPACT and QCHS will be available to meet with parents and community members following the presentation.

Presenters:

Jill McMahon is a licensed professional counselor, specializing in working with families bereaved by suicide. Jill oversees EMPACT-SPC's Survivors of Suicide support groups and is the clinical lead for the Local Outreach to Suicide Survivors (L.O.S.S.) Team. Mrs. McMahon has been a part of the EMPACT prevention team since 2007.

Renée Ouellet is an MSW and works as a Prevention Specialist for EMPACT-SPC, a non-profit community agency in Maricopa County. Ms. Ouellet has been the lead facilitator for mental health screening programs, such as Signs of Suicide, for over seven years.

Steve Schiro is a retired educator and former Chapter Chairman for the American Foundation for Suicide Prevention (AFSP) in Arizona. Steve currently facilitates suicide prevention presentations with EMPACT staff in Maricopa County. Mr. Schiro became involved in suicide prevention work after losing his son to suicide.

“FOR OUR CITY”

CHS is putting together a CHS team to help at the October 28th “For Our City” event. We will be collaborating to paint a neighborhood wall along Galveston Street. If you'd like to volunteer to be a part of our group, please sign up at <http://www.signupgenius.com/go/10c0d4bafae2ba5f94-chsiband>. This would be a great event for all ages!
