

CHANDLER HIGH WOLF BITES

NOVEMBER 20, 2017

WOLVES PLAYING FOR STATE CHAMPIONSHIP

If you haven't heard, we beat Red Mountain 51-10 last Friday, and we're playing in the State Championships! The Wolves are taking on the Perry Pumas at 7:00pm on Saturday, December 2nd at the University of Arizona Stadium in Tucson, and we want to fill as many CHS Spirit Buses as we need to get our students to the game. We're making it a contest and want to see if we can fill up at least one bus with seniors, one with juniors, one with sophomores, and one with freshmen. Go to the bookstore and purchase the spirit bus ride and your game ticket for only $15. Payment, signed permission slip and student ID will reserve your spot! The deadline to sign up is Thursday, November 30th at 3:00pm. Go Wolves!

DANCE CONCERT

The Chandler High Dance Department presented “Resonance”, the Modazz, Advanced, and Improv Fall Dance Concert. The choreography allowed for students to perform with energy and their passion was obvious. There were 500 people in the audience, 68 dancers, 11 backstage crew (from Beginning and Intermediate Dance), 10 students selling tickets and handing out programs, and 3 CCA staff. It was a great experience and it took eleven rehearsals which amounts to 27.5 hours of work to light and stage the finished pieces. Great work, dancers!

CARE CENTER THANKSGIVING DONATIONS

Thanks to all of our student organizations and staff members who joined in the campus-wide effort to collect needed items for the Chandler CARE Center's Thanksgiving Family Assistance Day. Student Council delivered a Wolf Bus full of goods to the CARE Center last Thursday, and CHS Wrestlers helped distribute food to families on Saturday.
