

Use the notes from class to fill in your worksheet.

1

Notes from Class Discussion, 8/19/19

According to the Enlightenment philosophes:

Where do rules come from? (Why are rules created? Who creates the rules? Where does the power to create rules come from?)

- Come from the people who give up their power to others
- government, rulers, royal family, sovereign, etc.
The "Hierarchy"

Rules are based on what society wants or needs - voted on by society

Rules created from fear, death, war... to avoid it in the future

Chaos in state of nature
↓
people develop Rules
↓
power - who has it?

Why do (most) people follow the rules? (What happens for the individual or society if the rules are followed? What happens for the individual or society if they are not?)

- For protection, order, peace
- To live a happy life
- To get Reward — trust, respect
- To avoid punishment

① To avoid bad stuff

② Seek Reward

Notes from Class Discussion, 8/19/19

According to the Enlightenment philosophes:

Where do rules come from? (Why are rules created? Who creates the rules? Where does the power to create rules come from?)

Why do (most) people follow the rules? (What happens for the individual or society if the rules are followed? What happens for the individual or society if they are not?)