

Declaration of Rights assignment

Monday Oct. 28, 2019

Directions:

1. You will use the specific right in the Declaration of Rights of Man and of the Citizen document (given to you last Friday) to do one of the following: (Note: If you were not here on Friday, please let Mr. Kennedy know so he can explain it to you.)

a. Create a 5 frame comic strip which creatively explains your right (make sure you label it). You can give a scenario which explains someone receiving that right or having that right threatened in some way (by the government, etc.) Make sure that your comic strip has some dialogue within it and explains in some way why that right is so important for a person to have.

OR

b. Create a dialogue between characters that provides a scenario where that specific right is needed and is used. Be creative to show a situation (s) where that right would be expressed. Make sure that you clearly explain why that right is so important for a person to have. Your dialogue should be at least 5 separate interactions between characters.

Due on Thursday Oct. 31st!
