

Enlightenment sample summary

The Enlightenment was an important 18th century movement led by philosophers that put an emphasis upon using reason (or logic) to understand humanity. Some big themes of the Enlightenment were ideas such as skepticism which led to questioning authority and desiring more freedom for humans so greater progress could be made.