

Becoming a global power

Learning goal: Students will analyze the causes and effects of American imperialism during the late 19th and early 20th centuries as the U.S. became a world power.

Concepts	Rate Yourself Before Concept	In your own words, respond to the question in the concept box using key vocabulary terms from that section of the unit.	Rate Yourself After Covering the Concept
Reasons for imperialism- What were the general causes of imperialism?	0 1 2 3 4		0 1 2 3 4
Acquisition of Hawaii: What events and ideas led to America acquiring Hawaii?	0 1 2 3 4		0 1 2 3 4
Spanish- American War- How did America become involved in a war with Spain, and what were the outcomes?	0 1 2 3 4		0 1 2 3 4
Chinese relations: What was America's policy in China, and how did this affect non-Americans?	0 1 2 3 4		0 1 2 3 4
Presidential policies: How did presidents vary in their implementation of imperialism?	0 1 2 3 4		0 1 2 3 4
Effects of imperialism: What were some outcomes of imperialism on a global level?	0 1 2 3 4		0 1 2 3 4
Ending knowledge	0 1 2 3 4		0 1 2 3 4