

PERSIA template

Directions: Decide which of the PERSIA statements below that would reflect the reality of what was occurring in the colonies. (based off the map observation and inferential work you just did). Match the letter of the correct statement next to the part of PERSIA it goes with. Note: Some of the answer choices at the bottom are incorrect so make sure to choose the right one.

Political-

Economic-

Religious-

Social-

Intellectual- (not shown on the maps)- How would you infer that colonists learned about the world around them?-

Area-

Answer choices

- a. There was inequality in the colonies between people since slavery existed
- b. All of the colonies made money and supported themselves in the same ways.
- c. Most of the colonies were given little power to make their own government decisions.
- d. Land on the coastline was highly sought after to live by.
- e. Religion played no role in the founding of the colonies
- f. Colonies differed in how they made money and supported themselves.
- g. Religion was very important to some colonists.
- h. Most of the colonists had a high degree of power to make changes to their government system.
- i. There would have been complete equality between all types of people in the colonies.