

War time activities

Directions: 1. Determine whether each of the situations below should be allowed to occur during war time in the United States. 2. Below each statement, write 2-3 sentences for each situation explaining if you think this activity should or should not be allowed during a war, justifying your answer. 3. Please answer the final response at the bottom.

1. Standing on a street corner and holding up a protest sign against a war.
2. A soldier decides he or she does not support fighting the war anymore and deserts the war (takes off and deliberately leaves their post)
3. A soldier spends all their free time in camp writing papers against the military and how fighting in the war is wrong.
4. People are drafted to go to war and deliberately refuse to go.
5. Because someone is upset with the government during war, they take a U.S. flag out into public and burn it.

Final response (3-4 sentences): Complete the following sentence starter: "Protest in war..."
