

The impact of a book and a court decision

- I. The book- _____ (best selling _____ of the 19th century)
  - A. Written in 1852 by _____
  - B. Described the story of challenges and suffering of multiple slaves in the United States
    1. Reaction #1- Many in the _____ were shocked and outraged by the book's contents.
    2. Reaction #2- Many in the South saw the book as _____ and felt that _____ was not properly portrayed.
  - C. The book caused further _____ over the issue of slavery.

- II. The court decision- _____ (1857)
  - A. _____ was a slave who was taken by his master to free territory, later returning to a slave state.
  - B. He sued for his _____ since he had been in a free state.
  - C. The Supreme Court ruled _____ Scott 7-2 and shared the following:
    1. Dred Scott had no rights to _____ in court since slaves were not _____.
    2. The court said that the _____ was unconstitutional since it was not allowing owners to take their _____ (slaves) into a territory.
    3. Because of this court decision, slavery had the potential to _____ with no laws against it.