

Major generals of Civil War

I. Ulysses S. Grant- North

- A. He led the attack on _____ in July 1863, which took control of the _____.
- B. He came to be known as _____ Grant. This means he asked enemies to surrender before telling them what he would give and take away.
- C. He accepted Robert E. Lee's _____ in April 1865.

II. Robert E. Lee- South

- A. Graduated from the military academy _____
- B. Did not approve of slavery but did not want to fight against his home state of _____
- C. He was the _____ of the Northern Virginia Army during the Civil War.
- D. He was known for taking _____ and his daring _____.

III. William T. Sherman- North

- A. Graduated from _____ Military at the age of 20.
- B. Famous for his _____ where he and his men _____ Confederate property (railroad tracks, fields, crops, livestock, etc.) along the way.
- C. By his actions above, he waged _____ to break the will of the South.
- D. Total war = war that is directed against both military and _____
- E. Captured _____ in Sept. 1864 and _____ the city.

Response