

Name: _____

Chapter 23-Guided Reading -Dictators and War

Directions: Using pages 772-778 answer the following questions.

1. Characteristics of a totalitarianism:

- A.
- B.
- C.

Soviet Union

5. Who was Russia's first totalitarian leader?

6. What are three results of his enforcing total control over Russia?

7. In 1924, who became the new head of the Communist Party?

8. What are three words used to describe his personality as a dictator?

- A.
- B.
- C.

9. His efforts to transform the Soviet Union to an industrial power resulted in the death of at least _____ people.

10. Describe the Great Terror or Purge:

- A.
- B.
- C.

Italy

1. Describe the economic state of Italy post-World War I:

- A.
- B.
- C.

2. In 1919, Benito Mussolini founded the _____ party.

3. Describe the party founded by Mussolini:

- A.
- B.
- C.

4. What are four things Mussolini enforced throughout Italy in order to control the government and people?

- A.
- B.
- C.
- D.

Germany

11. Describe the economic state of Germany post-World War I:

- A.
- B.
- C.

12. What are three things the Nazi party opposed?

- A.
- B.
- C.

13. What are four things Hitler enforced throughout Germany in order to control the government and people?

- A.
- B.
- C.
- D.

14. Describe Hitler's Youth Program:

- A.
- B.
- C.
- D.

Summary (In the space below 6-8 Sentences)

In your own words, use prior knowledge and today's new information to answer the following question:

During the 1930's, what did the Soviet Union, Italy, and Germany all have in common that lead them to becoming allies and joining forces to take on the world?

Cartoon (In the space below)

Draw a political cartoon capturing the political/social climate of one country involved in the Axis powers.