

7/8 General Art
Final Exam Review—F2018

Write definitions, etc. in the space provided.

Complete & turn in the day of the final for bonus points on the exam.

Elements of Art: be able to write about these after looking at an artwork

- Line
- Shape
- Form (how are shape and form different?)
- Color
- Texture (what are the 2 types of texture?)
- Value (what does value DO in a painting/drawing?)
- Space

Principles of Design: be able to write about these after looking at an artwork

- Pattern
- Rhythm
- Emphasis
- Unity
- Balance (what are the 3 basic kinds of balance?)

Drawing techniques (be able to demonstrate the following)

- Shading
- Hatching
- Cross-hatching
- Stippling

Color: of what is color made?

- Color groups:
 1. primary
 2. secondary
 3. tertiary
 4. complementary
 5. analogous
 6. monochromatic (tint and shade)
 7. temperature

Clay (where does it come from?)

- Slip
- Score
- Glaze
- 3 hand-building techniques; which did we use?

Plaster Masks

- What is functional art?
- Zoomorphic
- Anthropomorphic

Weaving

- What was the reason for major changes in the Zapotec weaving tradition?
What were those changes?
- Loom
- Warp
- Weft
- When do we tie knots in weaving?

Yarn Painting

- On what are the designs and symbols of the Huichol yarn paintings based?
- Why were the yarn paintings used to communicate?
- Why are yarn paintings considered functional art?

Optical Art

- Craftsmanship
- Perception
- Optical illusion
- What are some visual effects of Optical Art?

Greek Vase Painting

- Why do we have a lot of ancient Greek pottery in the archeological record?
- What were some uses for Greek vases?
- What is a meander pattern? (define and be able to draw one)
- What is naturalism? How does it apply to Greek Vase Painting?
- What is the main difference between black figure painting and red figure painting? (hint: it is not the color)

Mythology

- What is mythology?
- What was mythology used to explain?
- Who were the main players in Greek myths? Gods, goddesses . . .
- Be able to tell me at least one thing you learned about Greek mythology and today's popular culture.