What NOT to bring to AP exams

- Cellular phone, iPod or other MP3 player, pager or personal digital assistant (PDA). Leave them in the car, a locker or at home!
- Books, compasses, correction fluid, dictionaries, highlighters, or notes.
- Scratch paper (notes can be made on portions of the exam booklets).
- Rulers and straightedges (except if taking one of the Physics exams).
- Calculators (except if taking Calculus, Statistics, Chemistry or Physics).
- Portable listening or recording devices (even with headphones) or photographic equipment.

What to bring to AP exams

- ALL STUDENTS MUST BRING several sharpened No. 2 pencils (with erasers) for all multiple-choice answer sheets.
- ALL STUDENTS MUST BRING black or dark-blue ballpoint pens for completing areas on the exam booklet covers.
- A snack and beverage for the 10-minute break.
- A sweater, in case the room temperature is below your comfort level.
- Students can bring a watch WITHOUT AN ALARM (in case the exam room does not have a clock that you can see easily).
- If taking Physics: a ruler or straightedge.
- If taking Calculus, Chemistry, Physics or Statistics: A calculator that complies with the College Board Calculator Policy. Students are advised to borrow a 2nd calculator from a friend and/or bring replacement batteries to the exam.

Attendance, Arrival & Dismissal

Students are not required to attend classes on the day(s) of their AP exam(s). The attendance office will be notified of the excused absence(s) of students taking the exam(s).

Students are required to arrive no later than 30 minutes prior to the exams: 7:00 a.m. for the morning administration; 11:15 a.m.

Students are not dismissed until an exam has officially ended. Students should not ask to leave early if they finish before the end of the test, as their requests will be denied. Students who play a sport or have a job, are responsible for informing coaches or employers of AP obligations and making arrangements accordingly. Students taking two exams on the same day should bring their lunch as there will not be time between exams to buy lunch!
