Tuition Assistance is a Maricopa Community Colleges grant program available for dual enrollment students, based on financial need. Qualifying students will be awarded on a first come, first serve basis until funds are depleted.

The Maricopa Grant may cover up to 6 credits per school year. Eligible students will need to pay for any additional credits.

(If additional funding becomes available, additional credits may be covered)

Students must have a Maricopa account to apply. Go to cgc.edu/dual and click on Tuition Assistance.
