A TEACHER

should inspire a child to reach
academic success;

A PARENT

should inspire their child to use that success in
a way that influences
positive change in the world.

Comments & Take Aways

- It would benefit parents to see grades posted more frequently and timely so they can support you and their child regarding finishing assignments.
- It would benefit parents to have all student work accurately posted on IC so they can support you more.
- Parents would like more rigorous homework (and more of it) for their kids.
- Parents would appreciate communication when their child is failing.
- Parents would like us to put SJHS as a reference, when email blasting, because they have many students at many different schools.
- SJHS – goal to get at least 25% of our parents answering our survey 😊
