Did you know that you need 22 credits in different content areas to graduate from a CUSD high school? Did you also know that not all of the 22 credits required to graduate are part of your core GPA for college admissions? Want to learn more and access a spreadsheet that will help you calculate your core GPA for college? Check out the link here <https://www.cusd80.com/Page/106381> and look to the left for a quick and easy reference to see if you are on track to graduate.

Resources for Chandler Families:

With all the recent changes and closures we are seeing an increase in families that are in need of assistance. Please check our district counseling website for an updated list of resources and information. <https://www.cusd80.com/Page/100085>
