Just Wanted To Say:

- We are still working hard to get into all of our routines, and doing so with the expected behavior of first graders. If your child is coming home with consistent yellows, have a talk with them about how first graders act. Ex: quiet bodies, listen when the teacher is talking, hands to self. Those are all skills I reinforce daily.
- First reading and spelling tests were done for a grade today. Watch for grades in infinite campus and for the papers to come home next week.
- Field trip fees are now in infinite campus. Please log in and pay those. An email was sent with information on how to do so.
- Star student this week: Kenedy!
